General Session Highlights

Keynote - Friday, 7:45 PM Try A Little Tenderness

Rev. Dr. Laurel E. Hallman
Senior Minister, First Unitarian Church of Dallas, Texas

What can we do to create congregations with resilience, vitality and agility as we respond to the challenges of our time? Our keynote speaker, Laurel Hallman, will give us a new lens with which to view our faith communities.

Laurel Hallman has been the Senior Minister of the First Unitarian Church of Dallas for 20 years. She found Unitarian Universalism in St. Paul, Minnesota, at Unity Church–Unitarian in 1965, was called into the ministry from that church, and was ordained there 26 years ago. She says, “It will be good to be home in the Prairie Star District again.”

The Arthur M. Judy Memorial Lecture - Saturday, 9:00 AM Home Grown Religion

Dr. Bill Doherty

Professor, University of Minnesota Department of Family Social Science

Religion is taught, or caught, mostly in the family. How can our faith tradition go more deeply into our homes? How do we create a gravitational pull around Unitarian Universalism so that more of our children feel drawn back when they grow up and form their own families? The answer won't come in the form of traditional programming. We need a fresh approach.

Bill Doherty holds degrees in philosophy, theology, child development and family relations, and family studies. His interests include democratic community building with families. His writings include Take Back Your Marriage: Sticking Together in a World that Pulls Us Apart and Take Back Your Kids: Confident Parenting in Turbulent Times. He is a member of First Universalist Church, Minneapolis.

“Wild Rhubarb” Saturday Evening Banquet

“Wild Rhubarb” is a cooperative band supported by the Twin Cities Urban Folk School. Members volunteer their time and any proceeds earned go to support folk school operations. Dave Leussler leads the band and calls traditional dances for all ages and abilities. Attending a “Wild Rhubarb” dance is a chance to build community with your fellow participants supported by passionate music and buoyed by powerful traditions. “Wild Rhubarb” is always open to drop in musicians from the group. No experience necessary!

SUNDAY MORNING

First Unitarian Society welcomes you to experience the combined choirs of First Unitarian and First Universalist Church and our orchestra performing "Sources", a dynamic musical presentation based on the six sources of our UUA Purposes and Principles. Composed by Jason Shelton, Music Director at the UU Church of Nashville, with lyrics by Kendyl Gibbons, Senior Minister of the First Unitarian Society, this Cantata will have you singing, shouting, and making a joyful noise about the inspiring faith we share.

CHOIR

The Annual Conference choir is on sabbatical this year, due to the special musical presentation.

Help us to nurture justice in the wider community by focusing UU generosity on the American Refugee Committee's efforts in Darfur

The American Refugee Committee is a Minneapolis-based international nonprofit, nonsectarian organization that has provided humanitarian assistance and training to millions of beneficiaries over the last 27 years. ARC works with refugee communities in 10 countries around the world, helping people regain control of their lives. The people ARC serves have lost everything to events completely beyond their control. ARC provides shelter, clean water and sanitation, health care, skills training, microcredit education, protection and whatever support they can give to let people begin again. Our Sunday morning collection will be for ARC's efforts in Darfur. Currently in Darfur, ARC runs 16 Primary Health Clinics, repairs or builds one wateryard and one new well per month, provides books, classrooms, school kits, and water systems to 8,000 school-age kids, and assists farmers with seeds, tools, training, care of livestock, and development of community gardens. For more information, please visit www.arcrelief.org

SESSION A Workshops

10:30 to 11:45 AM, Saturday, April 14

A1 - Faith Without Certainty: UU Theology

Kathryn Bowman, Unitarian Church Davenport, IA

Come explore the contents of Paul Rasor's new book in UU theology, Faith Without Certainty. After a discussion based on the book's introduction, participants will receive a leader's guide to facilitating a book discussion in an adult religious education class and suggestions for use of this guide in their own congregations.

A2 - Drumming the Soul Awake

Jaime Meyer and Chris Bremer, First Universalist Church Minneapolis, MN

Through 15% lecture and 85% experiential learning, we will offer powerful insight into the ancient traditions of drumming as a spiritual practice, a way of earth-centered worship, and healing using the community as a container. Drawing from Celtic and northern European shamanic traditions, discover how to introduce drumming into your congregation at various levels, from simple to complex. The copresenters have led monthly drumming groups at their congregation for five years. Drums and rattles are provided.

A3 - Welcoming Congregations, Praise and Challenges

Forrest Swall and Rev. Michael Nelson, Unitarian Universalist Fellowships of Lawrence and Manhattan, KS

Come assess the Welcoming Congregation movement in our District, honor congregations that have achieved official Welcoming Congregation status, offer tips for success to those in the process, and discuss ways to keep the program vital and refreshed as we move forward.

A4 - Making the District Web Site Work for You

Ben Stallings, Prairie Star District Web Coordinator

The PSD Web site has become much more dynamic and interactive, but until now only District staff and a few volunteers have been in the driver's seat. Come learn how in just minutes you can update your congregation's listing in the PSD Directory or post the latest news from your PSD committee.

A5 - Nurturing Social Justice in PSD Congregations

Tom Lo Guidice, Vicki Pratt, Caron Wells, Bob Ciernia, Betsy Allis, and Jo Haberman, PSD Social Justice Network

Social justice has moved from "heroes and sheroes" to a systematic approach to change. We will report on alliances, clusters, CBCOs, steering committees, and national efforts that organize our PSD congregations for social action.

A6 - Valuing Our Church Staff and Ministers

Louise Livesay, Unity Church-Unitarian St. Paul, MN

Is your church considering hiring a new employee or minister? Are you looking for a position in a congregation? Wondering how the church can retain good employees? Come speak with the PSD Compensation Consultant about issues relating to compensation and benefits for your church staff and minister. Discuss how we can put our UU values into action as an employer. Learn what benefits are available through the UUA for your church staff.

A7 - Paths Toward Racial and Cultural Inclusiveness

Sharon Blevins, Connie Brown, Art Collins, Rae Ann DeVargas, Jim Eller, Janet Moss and Mitra Rahnama, All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church Kansas City, MO

We all want diversity, but how can we invite and involve people different from ourselves? What makes the difference between real inclusiveness and window-dressing? Come participate in a sampling of the efforts to walk the talk at All Souls and learn about a range of programming and activities designed to lead the congregation toward becoming a mosaic of many colors.

A8 - Try A Little Tenderness, Part 2

Rev. Dr. Laurel Hallman, First Unitarian Church Dallas, TX

Continue the conversation from our keynote address on how we can create resilient, vital, and flexible congregations to meet the needs and challenges of today.

A9 - The Family Chalice Project

Dr. Bill Doherty, First Universalist Church Minneapolis, MN

Learn about two innovative ways to go deeper into our faith tradition: Spiritual Pressure Point groups for parents and other adults, and a family meal ritual that tells the creation stories of Unitarian Universalism and pulls us into the questions these stories pose today.

A10 - What's the Buzz on Youth Ministry? Part 1

Tom Rylett and Tandi Rogers Koerger, UUA Task Force on Youth Ministry

Join PSD youth and adults to discuss what Prairie Star is doing well and could share with the rest of the UUA, explore additional opportunities for youth, envision a vibrant PSD youth ministry, identify resources needed, and commit to action and follow-through. Plan to attend all three workshops on this topic to take full advantage of this chance to shape our future youth ministry.

SESSION B Workshops 1:30 to 2:45 PM, Saturday, April 14

B1 - Through the Windows of Our Souls: Images of UU Faith

Rev. Laurie Bushbaum, UU Minister

Come join artist/minister Rev. Laurie Bushbaum to create a piece of community artwork that will be available to UU congregations in the district. Anyone can participate!

B2 - Where Does Christianity Fit?

Mary R. Sawyer, Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Ames, IA

We all reject fundamentalist Christianity, but what about liberal/ progressive/ feminist/ liberationist expressions of Christianity? Explore what resources Unitarian Universalists can draw from Christianity to enhance our spirituality and to help live our principles. As we seek more inclusive communities, let us not exclude those who still have an affinity for the teachings of Jesus.

B3 - Nurturing Your Professional Religious Educator Means Nurturing Your Community!

Benette Sherman and Other LREDA Officers.

Liberal Religious Educators Association members will present on nurturing your professional religious educator (DREs, youth directors, volunteers) so they can continue to nurture your faith community. We will speak about covenanting, the credentialing program, professional development, Good Officers and more. If your congregation wants a high-quality and meaningful lifespan faith formation program, then providing support, encouragement and nurturance of your religious educator is necessary.

B4 - Connecting Congregations Through Resource Sharing

Dawn Cooley, Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Ames, IA

Stonetree Congregational Resources is a practical application of the best inter-congregational communication: You refer people who have benefited your congregation through speaking, music, or other skills such as conflict management, so their skills can be shared with other UU congregations, and you find resources from other UUs that benefit your own. Learn to use Stonetree's new version to gain the most benefits for minimal effort!

B5 - Prairie Star District: Here to Serve You

Nancy Heege, District Executive; Kathy Bowman and Libby Starling, District Board members

If you have a gripe, a wish, or an accolade, we'd like to hear from YOU! The District is evaluating the services we offer to ensure alignment with congregations' needs. Please join us for a lively discussion of current and future needed services.

B6 - What's the Score with SCORE?

Graham Kreicker and Rev. Lisa Schwartz, Unitarian Universalist Fellowships of Lawrence and Topeka, KS

Come and hear about the continuing operation of the Southern Cluster Outreach & Extension (SCORE) lay/clergy partnership for growth and view a preview of plans for the coming year.

B7 - Films, Faith, and Fellowship

Carolyn MacDonald and Mike McKelley, All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church, Kansas City, MO

Explore ideas about starting and running a film series, drawing from the positive experiences with a weekly documentary film series at All Souls UU Church in Kansas City. We will discuss the selection of films, including sources, screening rights and fees; the connection to social justice work; and opportunities for outreach to other community individuals and groups.

B8 - Protecting Voting Rights (the Cornerstone of UU and American Democratic Principles)

Jennifer Thomas and Carol Johnson, First Universalist Church of Minneapolis, MN

With the integrity of our elections seriously eroding, most Americans do not trust their outcome. In 2006, at least 80% of our votes will be tabulated by machines with documented security vulnerabilities. Protecting our access to voting and our voting process, so we can have confidence that the results reflect the people's will, is the first step to achieve before we can realize gains on any progressive issues from the environment, to peace, reproductive rights, or civil liberties. Generations of women and people of color fought too long and hard to earn the right to vote; it is our duty to protect it. UUs must be leaders on this critical issue.

B9 - Developing and Integrating a Parish Nursing Program

Lorraine Grant-Nash, All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church, Kansas City, MO

The nurses at All Souls Church have developed a parish nursing program over the past year. There have been many successes and many road blocks along the way. If you are interested in developing this kind of program, this presentation is a must.

B10 - What's the Buzz on Youth Ministry? Part 2

Tom Rylett and Tandi Rogers Koerger, UUA Task Force on Youth Ministry

This workshop continues the conversation begun in workshop A10.

SESSION C Workshops 3:15 to 4:30 PM, Saturday, April 14

C1 - Treasures in Our Pockets: The How and Why of Intergenerational Worship

Rev. Laurie Bushbaum, UU Minister

Church is one of the last places in our culture where we can regularly be a multigenerational community. Worship nurtures souls. So how can we be all together in worship? Come practice.

C2 - We're Gonna Have to Sing Our Way Through This!

Rev. Don Rollins, Nora Unitarian Universalist Church, Hanska, MN

Sometimes it appears as though UUs resist truly singable music. This is a chance to learn and sing some songs that can lift our hearts and feed our souls.

C3 -Being Religious in School

David Schwartz, UU Ministerial Candidate

In the public school classroom, how do we live out our values as UU students, teachers and ministers? Can public secondary education be UU ministry? Explore how to live our religious values in the public school, the specific challenges and unique opportunities of this work, and our own stories of finding sustenance through our religious community for life in education as a student or educator. As a student, secondary school teacher, religious education teacher, or minister, what is your story of the intersection of your religious values and education?

C4 - Inspired Faith, Effective Action

Adam Gerhardstein, UUA Washington Office for Advocacy

Learn how UUs can do social justice work effectively and strategically to influence culture and policy, in a way that is grounded in our religious values, accountable to the community and rewarding for all involved. We will cover our theological foundation for social justice, accountability, building relationships, strategic planning, effective advocacy and celebrating our accomplishments.

C5 - Faith and Action: Discussing Reproductive Choice

Pamela Vincent and Kelli Clement, First Universalist Church of Minneapolis, MN

This workshop introduces the pilot curriculum developed by the Religious Coalition for Reproductive Choice. Developed specifically for Unitarian Universalists, it provides a four-part curriculum designed to bring more light and less heat to a potentially divisive topic. Trained to teach this curriculum, the presenters have taught it at First Universalist in Minneapolis.

C6 - You Can Say That Again – Finding Peace Through the Use of a Mantra

Lori Allen and Cheryll Wallace, Unitarian Church Lincoln, NE and First Unitarian Church of Omaha

This workshop is an introduction to the mantra, simple repetitive words, used for centuries to bring peace and balance in the midst of chaos or calm. Along with an introduction to time-honored mantras, participants will create a symbol that is a reminder of these sacred words. Prairie Star Religious Educators Lori Allen and Cheryll Wallace will facilitate.

C7 - The Great Turning

Betsy Allis, First Universalist Church of Minneapolis, MN

Come view David Korten's widely acclaimed presentation on The Great Turning: From Empire to Earth Community, delivered at the 2006 UUA General Assembly. Discuss his comprehensive plan for changing the direction of society away from the dominator model that has prevailed for 5,000 years toward a more sustainable Earth Community. Learn how UUs can play a powerful role in this shift. Led in partnership with UUs For a Just Economic Community (UUJEC) and UU EcoMinds, a working group of the MN UU Social Justice Alliance.

C8 - Bringing Our History to Life

Lowell Hanson and Jerry Lakso, White Bear Unitarian Universalist Church, Mahtomedi, MN

Join us for a first showing of two new PSD Heritage Committee history DVDs, a preview of two fall 2007 one-day video production workshops, and identifying important history stories to be dramatized. Jerry Lakso and Steve Goranson, both professional video producers, will present.

C9 – After Disaster

Rev. Jim VanderWeele, Community Church Unitarian Universalist, New Orleans, LA

A retrospective. How might a church address pastoral concerns and planning issues after a disaster? The topics include maintaining contact, post traumatic stress, loss of members, building a reconstruction plan, and the formation of a cluster: The Greater New Orleans Unitarian Universalists (GNOUU).

C10 - What's the Buzz on Youth Ministry? Part 3

Tom Rylett and Tandi Rogers Koerger, UUA Task Force

This workshop continues the conversation begun in workshops A10 and B10.

What's the Buzz on Youth Ministry?

Youth Consultation with the UUA

If you are a youth age 12-18 (7th to 12th grade), we extend a special invitation to you to meet with representatives of the Unitarian Universalist Association at the PSD Annual Conference. This gathering of youth and adults is an opportunity to learn what youth and congregations in our district have reported in surveys and congregational conversations, and to explore opportunities for stronger ministry with our diverse youth community. Come discuss what our district is doing well and could share with the rest of the UUA, explore additional opportunities for youth, identify resources needed to move forward, and commit to action.

The youth consultations will occur during the scheduled workshop sessions. Otherwise, youth will be a part of the full conference. Youth will attend the Saturday awards luncheon, and will have their own dinner party before the Saturday night entertainment and youth-led worship service. Youth may make hotel reservations or stay at the First Unitarian Society. Housing information will be included in the confirmation packet.

Each attending youth must have a sponsor from their congregation who is also attending the PSD Conference. Sponsor responsibilities include attending the Friday night orientation session, maintaining contact with youth, and supporting youth during the weekend.
